

Art Work By Huntcliff Resident
Brenda Boyle

September 2022

HUNTCLIFF HARBINGER

Huntcliff Summit Independent Living
8592 Roswell Road
Sandy Springs, Georgia 30350

COMING EVENTS

Gillian Gussack (crafts wizard) will be teaching the first class on September 1st at 1:00 PM on “glass etchings”. All supplies provided. Watch for further details.

Photography class – In early October our own master photographer Fred Ortyl will be leading a class on “What Makes a Good Photograph”

“Art for Alheimers” – Exhibit and auction of art along with a cocktail party – a fundraiser for a worthy and important cause.

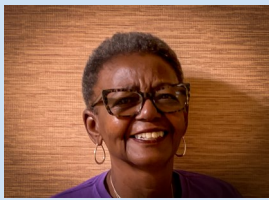

“Humor in pictures” – Rosemarie leads an on screen exhibit in the Essex room of humor in pictures and jokes. If you don’t like to laugh, you probably don’t want to attend.

9/11 – “We must never forget” – Brandt Ross will tell the important story of this memorable event on September 11th. (with songs)

“Baseball program” - Learn the story of the “Real Natural” and the “Field of Dreams” (“If you build it, he will come”) and Baseball players who went to war. Program by Brandt Ross with songs.

Continue to check the monthly calendar, postings, and bulletins for activity announcements and updates.

If your club or activity wants to make announcements, updates, or explanations in the Harbinger, please email Brandt Ross (brandtross@bellsouth.net) or Fred Ortyl (fredortyl@gmail.com).

Huntcliff's Head of Housekeeping & Laundry Services — Sandra Newsom

Sandra Newsom. Head of housekeeping and laundry services: Sandra is a 23 year staff member at Huntcliff. She came here when Lisa convinced her to join our staff. She was born in Louisville. Ky, and grew up in Cleveland, Ohio. Her high school experiences included running track and enjoying English. She was prom queen her senior year. She followed her sister to Atlanta. Sandra has 4 children, 4 grandchildren, and 2 great grandchildren, all in Atlanta. Sandra enjoys her work here, both with the residents and the staff, but she wishes everyone would be a little more patient in these difficult employment times.

Message from Lisa (Huntcliff Executive Director)

Earlier this summer, Huntcliff Summit was recognized as part of U.S. News & World Report's Best Senior Living Ratings for 2022-2023 in the Best Independent Living category!

Our inclusion on this list demonstrates our work to provide the best-in-class senior living options and offer a leading experience to our residents and families. This recognition was based on feedback from you, the consumers!

We appreciate the sharing of your experiences on our community to include programming, dining, and management. This recognition is a testament to how every facet of the experience at Huntcliff Summit is carefully designed with a person-centered approach to meet your unique preferences and desires.

We are proud you agree that our community not only provides attentive, compassionate care and services, but also what you described as a fun and engaging lifestyle where you can enjoy an active social life and pursue your hobbies and interests.

We are so honored to be included on this list, but this recognition also underscores the importance of our work to continuously improve and positively impact your lives.

I am always open to your feedback, so please feel free to share your thoughts, suggestions, and interests at any time!

Lisa

September Birthdays

September 3	Barbara Green, Penny Lawing
September 4	Hazel Cofield
September 13	Walter Weinberg
September 16	Jean Lowry
September 18	Arlene Levy
September 20	Elegy Washington
September 22	Martha Edgerton, Roberta Marblestone
September 24	Pep Greene
September 25	Susan Fischer, Eileen Riesenburger
September 26	Sandy Naimon
September 27	Jeanne Bump

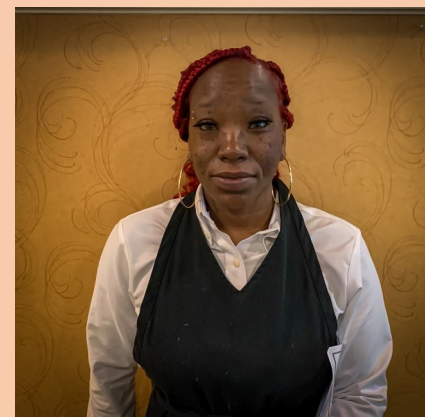

September Newsletter Developers

Wilma Asrael, Stan Bernstein, Marvin Fellner, Rosemarie Hosbein, Carol Lewis, Bunny Maron, Fred Ortyl, Brandt Ross, and Julian Yudelson.

Anniversaries

September 2 Ray & Margie Bowyer
September 13 Jim Masak & Barbara Schneider

New Staff Members

Jessica Henderson
Server

Tiana Odum
Housekeeping

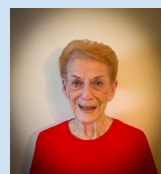

Alima Sokera
Laundry

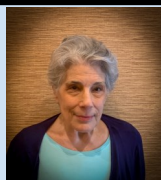

New Friends

Joseph & Emily Roman moved here from Canton, GA. Their interests are reading, bridge, music, watching golf, painting, gardening, travel, and music. They have eight grandchildren, and one great grandchild.

Rose Stacio moved here from Sandy Springs, GA. Her interests are walking, bingo, television, and movies. She has two children and one grandchild. She worked for Marshalls dept store for 35 years.

Penny Lawing moved here from Pasadena, CA. Her interests are art, animal rescue, music, water exercise, Dodgers' baseball, and live music. Her career was in broadcast sales and house restoration.

Sue Taylor moved here from Dunwoody, GA. Her interests are bridge, gardening, birdwatching, and mystery programs on TV. She worked for Rich's Department Store.

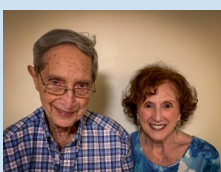

Judy Madden moved here from Roswell, GA. Her interests are gardening, Univ of GA football, and the Atlanta Braves. She previously worked as a membership director at a country club. She has one child, and one grandchild.

No Photo Available

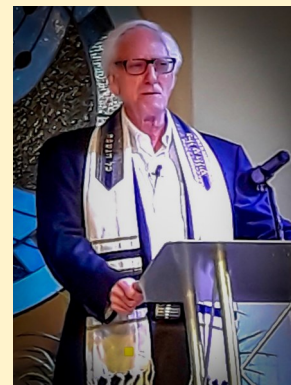

Barbara Carson moved here from Marietta, GA. She was in the Air Force for 20 years. Her interests are reading, music, and movies. She has one daughter and one granddaughter.

No Photo Available

Marie Lynette Rhodes moved here from Houma, LA. She loves Cajun Food, and her other interests are reading, oil painting, swimming, sewing, music, and arts & crafts. Previously she was a nurse.

Bill Sonenshine & Marsha Ivers moved here from Kennesaw, GA. Bill worked as a research associate, and Marcia was a teacher, and home care/nursing home director. Their interests are music, photography, telling jokes, philosophy, and good conversation.

Outstanding Volunteer - Bob Bahr

Bob Bahr leads our Shabbat and Jewish holiday services at Sunrise at Huntcliff Summit and screens a monthly film program on Saturday afternoon. He's the spiritual leader of Shema Yisrael - The Open Synagogue and has been a national board member of Aleph - The Alliance for Jewish Renewal.

Bob is active in the Atlanta Jewish Film Festival and often hosts programs on film and popular culture in the Atlanta community..

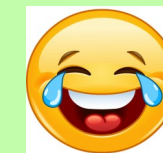

He grew up in Kansas City and majored in theater at the University of Missouri. His master's degree in communications is from Syracuse University. In the late 1960s he was a foreign correspondent in London, and covered Israel's Six Day War. Later as an award-winning producer at CBS News he worked with Walter Cronkite, Dan Rather and Diane Sawyer.

At Atlanta-based CNN he was the Managing Editor of the broadcaster's Documentary Unit. His feature-length documentary, The Reagan Years, was produced for MGM. He has also been a contributor to National Public Radio, the PBS News Hour, and Entertainment Tonight. For his frequent reports and commentaries in the Atlanta Jewish Times, he was awarded three Rockower Awards in 2020, the highest award in journalism for the nation's Jewish community.

Featured Artist—Brenda Boyle

Resident, Brenda Boyle, was born and raised in Salem, MA. Moving to Atlanta several years ago, she began to follow her passion for painting. Brenda is a mostly self-taught artist and produced a large collection of art. The back cover shows a small representation of her splendid paintings. We are proud to show her art work here at Huntcliff.

Humor

- I'm reading a book about anti-gravity.....I can't put it down.
- So what if I don't know the meaning of the word "apocalypse", it's not the end of the world.
- Police were called to a daycare center. A 3 year old was resisting a rest.
- Need an ark to save two of every animal? I noah a guy.

